A GHOST FOR MAGGIE

Bantam Doubleday Dell Publishing Group Inc, United States, 1999. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 170 x 107 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. She s a ghost with a disreputable past.and a heavenly mission. With her trademark blend of sparkling humor and sizzling romance, Emily Carmichael has earned a legion of devoted fans. Now she returns to delight readers with a wickedly delicious tale of modern love--and some old-fashioned meddling. Once, sultry Robin Rowe was the hottest madam in the whole Wild West. Then a jealous suitor shot her dead. But when the wicked Red Robin departed this life, she didn t depart this world. Instead she found herself hanging around, watching as her daughter and her daughter s daughters made first-class fools of themselves over the wrong men.until now, a hundred years later, Robin has just one descendant left. It doesn t take a genius to see that bright, beautiful, mistrustful Maggie Potter is headed for spinsterhood. So when fate drops her on Robin s doorstep, the sexy ghost jumps at the chance to straighten out her great-great-granddaughter. Only Robin doesn t know how challenging the job of guiding Maggie s love life is going to be. For Maggie s on vacation from men--maybe even a permanent leave of absence. Still, Robin didn t get to be the most successful tart in town by giving up. Now she s prepared to do everything in her ghostly power to see that Maggie lands herself the perfect man, even if she has to teach Maggie her most erotic secrets.
