He was fortunate. Yes. Pott-lucky. Now he has cut his lucky. But you do not want to know all this in order to be killed by me. The Passenger drew himself up. He was a draughtsman. It was as easy for him to draw himself up as to take some one else down. This was what he had set himself to do. You know your Catechism Y he asked. M. or N., as the case may be, replied the Sailor. He pointed a remark at the Stern Passenger. Then he resumed: It is all said. I give you one minute, Misteb Kristiminhtraï. Why do you call me Misteb Kristiminstral P Because you are a K ri stimmst ral. Thftt is plain enough. I have never seen one, hut I have heard of them. If one had been a Kristiminstral,...
