Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Children s Book: A Collection of the Best and Most Famous Stories and Poems in the English Language The Hare laid himself down midway and took a nap; for, says he, I can catch up with the Tortoise when I please. But it seems he overslept himself, for when he came to wake, though he scudded away as fast as possible, the Tortoise had got to the post before him and won the wager. Slow and steady wins the race. The Cat And The Mice. In a certain house there were many Mice. Now a Cat, hearing of this, went there and began to catch them and eat them up one by one. When the Mice were having this sorry time, they said among themselves: Let us take time by the forelock and make our way to the eaves, that we may not be every one of us destroyed, for since the Cat cannot get there we shall be saved. Now when the Cat could not get at the Mice, he thought something must be done, and began to plan to get them out by some trick. Climbing up to a peg, and throwing himself off, he hung from it and pretended to be dead. One of the Mice peeping out saw him there and said: Ah, you fellow, if you were a bag of meal itself we wouldn t come out to you. The fable teaches that prudent men, when they have found out rascals, are not to be caught by their make-believe. The Farmer And His Sons. A Farmer who had come to the end of his life wished his sons to...
