Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Zone Police: A Play in One Act The scene is laid at the Las Palmas Police Station on the Isthmus of Panama. Scene: - The interior of a police station; bare, and official looking. It belongs to the Canal Zone Police on the Isthmus of Panama. It is supposed to stand in an open space within fifty yards of a railroad station on the railroad between Colon and Panama. In the play the station is referred to as Las Palmas. The walls are of plaster or planed boards, in the back wall is a door opening on the level of the ground. Directly to the right of this door is a small stand or table holding a water cooler with a practical spigot and a white enameled cup. On the floor below the spigot, to catch the overflow of water, is a gray stone jar. In the right wall half way down stage is a door of iron bars with a large practical lock. This door is supposed to lead to a corridor of cells. Below this door is a table with a flat top, set broadside to the audience. On it are a student lamp with a green shade, writing materials, long books bound in calfskin. Behind it facing audience, a plain wooden chair. Down stage far to the left on a line with this table is a larger table, end on to the audience; with a swivel chair to the left of it, facing right. On the center of this table is another student lamp with green shade, writing materials and on the lower end a hand telephone. About the Publisher...
