You are in one corner of it, and we are in another, and we must lie down where God bids us, and bear all his will. Marian is getting bitter food just now-- a sore, sore throat, sad pain, and doses she does not like; but she must try to like them, and he quick in doing it, or friends will get tired out, if she does not do all she is bid just at once. I send a spotted lizard, cut out, and if my child likes it, we may paste it in her album some day. The children and I cut it out last night for our own book; but when any of them see anything that looks nice, they say, Send it to Marian, and if we sent all they bid us, you would need to...
