Excerpt: . . . 13 pliance, if any, would depend upon the future actions of the Sec-retary, about which information is not available, CBO cannot esti-mate the costs of this mandate. Extension of Financial Responsibility. The bill would require owners and operators of tank vessels weighing between 100 gross tons and 300 gross tons to establish evidence of financial responsi-bility for any future oil spill. According to the Coast Guard, such evidence is usually established through an insurance guarantee. In effect, this provision would require owners and operators to show proof of insurance that they are required to carry under current law. According to industry sources, few entities own or operate tank vessels weighing less than 300 gross tons. Consequently, CBO estimates that the cost to comply with this requirement would be small relative to the annual threshold established by UMRA. Year-Round Response Tug. The bill would require a tugboat that is capable of providing rapid assistance and towing...
