Chair Meyers. Good afternoon. Today, the Small Business Committee will hold a hearing on the Administration s and Congressional initiatives to reform OSHA, and their impact on Small Businesses. This is the second of what I anticipate will be a continuing series of oversight hearings, which will focus upon what is actually happened to reduce paperwork and regulatory burdens upon small business. As I mentioned during last week s hearing, congressional oversight may not attract the press interest that some other legislative activities do, but I believe oversight should be a hallmark activity of the Small
